

To prevent home fires and other electrical accidents when using extension cords, follow these guidelines:

1. Use an extension cord only as a temporary connection.
2. Always check cords for damaged plugs.
3. Avoid running extension cords across foot traffic areas or near water.