

- Turn off & unplug the fan and TV set when not in use.
- Keep in mind that using several appliances at the same time multiplies your entertainment cost.
- If comfortable enough, set the fan at “low.”
- When the fan is needed in one direction only, lock the oscillator. This way, air is blown directly where it is needed.

- Keep appliances in good working condition so that they will last longer, work more efficiently and consume less energy.